

Awesome Supporter Award

LOUISVILLE, Ky (May 19, 2010) - On Wednesday, May 19, the Ursuline Sisters of Louisville were honored for their support of the Zoom Group on the Ursuline Campus. The sisters rent the Garden House to the organization for just a dollar a year, and many of the Ursuline Sisters have volunteered for the program at the Garden House which provides day program for the physically and mentally challenged adults.

In a statement about the sisters' involvement, the Zoom Group wrote:

“From Sister Mary Marcotte ‘s involvement many years ago to Sister Lynn Jarrell’s involvement today, we are very grateful to all the sisters for providing us with the Garden House and grounds to offer our clients a welcoming place to spend a meaningful day and to experience a true sense of belonging in the community.

“We also want to acknowledge all the sisters who have volunteered their time with clients, especially Sister Ramunda for her many years of tutoring Garden House clients in reading. Thank you to all the Ursuline Sisters for their contributions to Zoom Group.”

Sisters Lynn Jarrell, Marth Jacob, Rita Dressman, and Ruth Ann Haunz, all members of Ursuline Leadership, accepted the “Awesome Supporter Award.” The award was given to the sisters at The Olmstead during a ceremony to honor those who have helped support Zoom Group’s important work within the community.
