

Community Days' Celebrations

LOUISVILLE, Ky (July 27, 2009) – The annual Community Days are now underway on the Ursuline Campus located along Lexington Road in Louisville, KY. Ursuline Sisters of Louisville who are serving in Kentucky and other places across the country and around the world have returned to the Motherhouse to celebrate their ministries and address the challenges faced in the coming months. It's also a time to join with Ursuline Associates, donors, and co-workers during a series of events.

Every year, the Ursuline Sisters of Louisville celebrate their Community Days at the end of July. This year, the celebrations kicked off on Sunday, July 26, with an event to thank all the donors, volunteers, and co-workers for giving their time, talent, and treasure to the Ursuline Sisters' mission. More than 250 people attended the special Mass in the Motherhouse Chapel which was followed by a reception. (To see more photos from the event, click here.)

So many people attended the event that chairs had to be brought into the chapel to accommodate everyone while others had to watch from above.

On Monday, July 27, the Ursuline Sisters began their internal meetings which will continue through Wednesday, July 29. Also this week, on Tuesday, July 28, they'll attend the annual Ursuline Associate Covenant signing followed by a dinner at Marian Home. On the morning of Thursday, July 30, the sisters will celebrate this year's Jubilarians at a special Jubilee Liturgy in the Motherhouse Chapel. (To meet this year's Jubilarians, click here.)

Later, on the afternoon of July 30, the sisters will take part in two missioning ceremonies, one at the Motherhouse, the other at Marian home, where the sisters will receive their official missioning cards from the Ursuline Leadership. Missioning takes place once a year.
