

Father Butler Celebrates 40 Years at the Motherhouse

LOUISVILLE, Ky (April 30, 2010) - "I don't get lots of telephone calls or visitors," Father John Butler said during a recent interview. "In fact, I get about three calls a week and one is usually a wrong number," he adds laughing a little at the joke.

Father Butler describes himself as "a quiet man." He enjoys time to reflect and pray which is one of the reasons he calls himself "lucky" to live in a small apartment that's attached to the Motherhouse.

On June 1, he is celebrating his 40th year of saying Mass at the Ursuline Motherhouse. Father Butler would also filled in for Father Joe Merkt by saying Mass at Marian Home on Saturdays before the sisters moved to Mercy Sacred Heart Village.
