

Square Dancing Comes to Marian Home

LOUISVILLE, Ky (June 30, 2009) - Marian Home residents and staff got quite a treat in June. The square dancing team from St. Mary's Center in Louisville put on a show for everyone. The Center works to foster a positive self image for its students who are coping with developmental disabilities. See a full photo gallery of the fun event by clicking the "view photos" button below:

View Photos