

Ursuline Arts Center Ribbon Cutting Ceremony

LOUISVILLE, Ky (January 14, 2010) – The lights dimmed and the stage was set for the ribbon cutting ceremony in celebration of the Ursuline Arts Center opening on the evening of January 14, 2010 after an 18-month renovation and expansion. As the crowd of donors and arts patrons gathered in the concession area, the Sacred Heart Academy Madrigal Choir descended the staircase singing “welcome here as we open our doors.” Sister Martha Jacob, member of the Ursuline Leadership, gave the opening prayer offering thanks to all the actors, singers, and artists. Then in a style fit for the stage, the curtain was drawn back to reveal central figures in the renovation process, including the members of the Ursuline Leadership, behind the red ribbon. After a dramatic drum roll the ribbon was cut and the new facility was officially opened.

Sisters Lynn Jarrell, Rita Dressman, Ruth Ann Haunz, and Marth Jacob (far right) celebrate the opening of the Ursuline Arts Center by cutting the ribbon.

View Photos