

Sisters and Associates Attend North American Ursuline Convocation

CLEVELAND, OH (July 5, 2010) - Twenty-eight sisters and associates from Louisville participated in the North American Ursuline Convocation in Cleveland, July 1-July 4. The four day gathering included a speaker on the spirituality and ideals of St. Angela Merici, foundress of the Ursulines; small-group sessions on Human Trafficking in the U.S.A. and other countries; and a celebration of the 475th anniversary of the founding of the Ursulines in a Eucharistic Liturgy and a dinner at the Motherhouse of the Ursuline Sisters of Cleveland. Nearly 300 sisters, associates and friends from Canada, Mexico and across the U.S.A. participated.
